State Union Central Committee.

The President of the late Union meeting held in this city—EX-Governor WM. B. CAMPBELL—at the instance of a number of prominent gentlemen then present, has appointed a State Central Union Committee, with whom the friends of the Union in various parts of the State may communicate in communication by letter or otherwise.

The Committee consists of the following named gentlemen:

ALLEN A. HALL, Chairman.
A. V. S. LINDSEY.
JOHN LELLYETT.
RUSSELL HOUSTON.
HORACE H. HARRISON.
M. M. BRIEN.

Will it be valid?

In appealing to the Union voters of Nashville to attend the election to-day, we wish it to be clearly understood that we do not speak by authority. It is a question of grave debate in the minds of many loyal men whether an election held in the present convulsed condition of our State should be regarded as valid. Our own impression at present is that it should not. Of the Governor's view we know nothing. But one thing is highly desirable—that every Union man should come up and vote, and show the nation that there is a loyal and faithful band of patriots in this city which has been poisoned by so many baleful influences. The election will be a most valuable auxiliary in consolidating our strength. Let every man, then, come up and enroll his name in the Union list.

Turner S. Foster, Esq.

This individual is as fierce and intol- erant a Rebel, so exclusive in his sym- pathies for all that carries the plague-taint of Rebellion, that he has refused to announce himself in the columns of the Union. Notwithstanding, we are deter- mined to be more liberal than he is, and to announce him for nothing. We will do more than this. As he has declined making speeches and defining his posi- tion to the people, we republish from the columns of the Nashville Patriot the following announcement, with Mr. Fos- ter's signature affixed, as giving a fair statement of his present position. Let him take it for his platform.

OFFICE OF COMMITTEE ON PASSPORTS, Nashville, Sept. 9, 1861.

Notice is hereby given to all persons desiring Passports to go beyond the limits of this State, or the Confederate States, that hereafter when parties are not known to the Committee, they will be required to be introduced by some well known person, or to produce recommendations from some official person in the service of the Confederate States, or of some State in the Confederacy, or municipal authorities where they last resided, or letters to some person in this city, who will vouch for the signature of the person signing such letter, and that they are worthy of respect. This course is adopted in consequence of strict orders from General R. C. Foster, commanding this Division. By the observance of which all such persons will be saved much trouble and delay.

G. M. FOGG, Pres. &c.
TURNER S. FOSTER, Sec'y.

Secretary of Confederate passports! He signed no passports for any one un- less recommended and endorsed by Rebel authority! What an admirable Judge Mr. Foster would make under the Federal Government!

Just in Wheat.

We regret to learn from farmers from various adjoining counties that the rust has already begun to make its appear- ance in their fields and that their crops will be worth little if anything. We hope that this is not general.

Arrested.

Yesterday morning D. F. Carter, Pres- ident and John Herriford, Cashier of the Bank of the Union, in this city, were arrested by order of Governor Johnson, for treason, and placed in confinement. The money changers will soon be scourged out of the temple.

Give it Up.

A gentleman of this place was in com- pany the other day with several black cloth rebels, who were discussing the signs of the times. "I think brother," said one, "that the best thing we can do, is to send word to our boys to come home from the Southern army. The United States will be pretty sure to whip them out, for it is too strong to contend with." Now we call this really sensible talk.

A Secret Rebel Order.

We are told that a secret Rebel Club has been holding night meetings in our city during the past week for the purpose of uniting the rebel vote upon Mr. Fos- ter. No doubt every active traitor in our city belongs to it. Let all such per- sons be arrested immediately.

The Foreigners.

The rebels, who a few months ago forced poor and friendless foreigners into Jeff. Davis's army, now say that the "damned flop-eared Dutch and red- mouthed Irish have no more right to vote than a nigger." That is rebel gratitude.

A great many daring and intrepid navigators have tried to pass the North Pole, and have perished in the perilous adventure. Mr. Foster to-day will at- tempt to pass the Union pole in Nashville in his Confederate mud-scow, and we predict will share a common fate with the Arctic navigators, without winning any of their glory for his undertaking.

If the people of this city are doomed to see Turner S. Foster sitting on the Bench to expound and enforce those laws on which he lately trampled, and which he endeavored to utterly destroy, they may naturally expect to see a Grand Jury composed of the immortal Vig- lance Committee, whose practice in drawing up noit indictments against their enemies will make them an expedi- tious body.

We suppose that the Methodist Pub- lishing House, of this city, will furnish the rebels with tickets to-day. It is true that it is "an exclusively religious and eleemosynary institution," as its man- ager told Secretary Chase a few weeks ago, but we suppose printing rebel tickets will come within the range of its pious duties.

A poll will be opened this morning in the loyal city of Nashville for Turner S. Foster, Secretary of Committee on Passports under the Rebel Government, for the high and responsible office of Circuit Judge. Why is not a poll opened for Beauregard, Jeff. Davis and Isham G. Harris?

There are a great many Passes famous in history and geography. There is the Pass of Thermopylae, the great North- west Pass, the Passes at the mouth of the Mississippi, and the Passes out of the Southern Confederacy, known as Foster's passes.

We hope every voter who is loyal to Tennessee and to the Union will pass Turner S. Foster to-day at the polls. We want our friend BRIEN, on the contrary, to order him up, and go it alone.

How long would JEFF. DAVIS suffer a Union man, JOHN MINOR BOTT, for ex- ample, to appear before the people of Richmond as a candidate for any civil office? We answer, not one hour. The daring offender would be lodged im- mediately in jail.

JEFF. DAVIS allows no man to vote in the whole Rebel Confederacy, unless he swears allegiance to the usurpers who control it. And shall we suffer the friends of JEFF. DAVIS to vote unchal- lenged?

The rebel bullies have been tolerated long enough in Nashville. Let them hide their heads in their dens to-day.— This is no day for a traitor to show his face upon the streets.

Mr. Foster would make an able Judge, but that is far from proving that he would make a passable Judge.

Is Mr. FOSTER running in the Union or is the Southern Confederacy?

$100 Reward.

Some two weeks ago we offered the above reward to any Secessionist who would sell $1000 U. S. Treasury Notes at fifty per cent. discount, and buy $1000 Confederate Scrip at fifty cents on the dollar. We have not been able to find any rebel who will accept of the offer, although we have hunted for one dili- gently, and although there are wealthy rebels here who say that U. S. money is worthless and Confederate money as good as gold. We now make a still more advantageous offer to the rebels.

We will pay $100 to any man who will sell us $1000 U. S. Treasury notes at twenty-five per cent. discount, and buy Confederate scrip at fifty cents on the dollar.

Important Question!

Would the loyal authorities of this State suffer a man to raise a military company for BEAUREGARD's army at Cor- inth and parade them through our streets? Would not such a man be immediately arrested? How much better is it then for a man to muster a band of voters who acknowledge no allegiance to the Federal Government and march them to the polls in order to get possession of the civil government? We think the latter offence the most daring and criminal of the two. It is certainly monstrous in- consistency and folly to allow men who claim to be citizens of one government to attempt to control the affairs of another government.

Prompt Action.

The following dispatch gives a warn- ing to guerrilla sympathizers, of what they may expect. Governor JOHNSON's proclamation will prove to be no empty threat.

PULASKI, TENN., May 21, 1862.
To His Excellency Governor JOHNSON:
A Military Commission was held here yesterday, to enquire into the destruction of the merchandise of J. H. PIONEER, a Union man, by Morgan and his crew, on the 1st of May. The commission as- sessed the damages at $1,262 88c., which they ordered me to collect from the authorities of the town, or failing in that, to make the amount from the sale of the property of certain sympathizers, to be afterwards designated. The facts of the case are not contradicted. The Mayor and Councilmen requested me to put off the execution of the writ until they could see you, which I granted.

Yours truly, CHAS. B. GILLESPIE, Provost Marshal.

Good! A word, and then a blow, is the only way to stop this infernal guer- rilla warfare.

THEATRE.—The audience at the Theatre every evening is very large; in fact, the attendance appears nightly to be on the increase. Last evening the Drama of "A Tale of Blood" was produced, with signal success. The after-piece was—"Toodles"—the inimitable EVERETT personating the character of "Timothy Toodles." Of course it was a success.

We understand that the managers have secured the services of several tal- ented ladies and gentlemen, who will shortly appear. With this addition to the company now playing at the Nash- ville Theatre, it will make it the best in the South-West.

It seems to us that a man who would stoop to the miserable office of Secretary for a Rebel Committee on passports ought to be taken to a Court of Justice, not by means of the ballot-box, but by the officers of his insulted and outraged country, whose borders he has helped to fill with mourning, and whose sod is drenched with blood which he has helped to shed. For such a man to appeal to his injured countrymen for office is adding insult to injury.

When shall we again place confidence in and bestow offices on Rebel leaders? When the Mississippi runs up stream; when the Rocky Mountains become a valley; when Isham G. Harris ceases to be a braggart and a coward; when Floyd stops stealing; when Baldwin finishes his sermon on the "Curse of Cowardice," and the Methodist Publish- ing House becomes an "exclusively re- ligious and charitable institution!"

Nashville has been "redeemed" by the triumphant army of the Union, and now let her be "regenerated and disentrained" from the last remains of rebel influence, by the still more potent influence of loyal votes at the ballot-box.

If FOSTER should defeat that brave and true man, M. M. BRIEN, to-day, for Circuit Judge, would not matters come to a pretty pass?

Fall into the line, men of the Union! To-day is no day for the faint-hearted or for laggards.

PRIVATE DISPENSARY.

THE attention of citizens, strangers, and others vi- siting Nashville, requiring medical aid, is respect- fully called to this office, No. 21 Dandridge street, re- ceiving floor, between Cherry and the Square.

Dr. Coleman is an old practitioner of medicine; his almost unlimited experience and fastidious success for many years past, in the treatment of private dis- eases, has induced him to devote his undivided at- tention to all diseases of this nature. Many cases of the most inveterate character have promptly yielded to his improved method of treatment.

A female irregularities and functional derange- ments of the womb, and the disease arising from Gestation and ill managed parturition.

Every case of Reducible Rupture, and of Piles, and Protrusion of the Rectum, and most cases of Fistula, can be cured by a process nearly painless. If either of the latter cases is undertaken by Dr. Coleman, a cure is invariably warranted, as a careful examination always presents the necessary indications of success or failure by his improved method of operating.

Persons of either sex applying in person or by letter (describing case) on the first symptoms of any acute or chronic disease, can be cured, in most cases, by the above method, in forty-eight hours.

Strict confidence, prompt attention, and moderate charges, will govern him with his patients.

It is a mercy used in the treatment of venereal diseases, as he believes (in most cases) it produces a worse disease than that it is given to cure.

the treatment of private diseases for 20 years, failed himself, having attended to a practice for so many years, and cured so many thousands, he is enabled to cure all diseases of a private nature, no matter how bad they may be from injudicious medical treatment, or from neglect of themselves. Dr. King's Dispensary is
No. 22 Dandridge street, between Cherry and the Square, nature.

a few days, by an operation which causes no pain.
Where a stricture exists health cannot be enjoyed.
Perhaps no disease causes more mischief and undermines the constitution so much.

Syphilis, with all the diseases of the skin, growing out of neglect or bad treatment, can be effectively cured in a few days.

Sexual Weakness.—Particular attention having been given to this disease, and all the consequences growing out of it, brought on in many cases by the destructive habits of immoderate youth, and excessive indulgence of the passions, a neglect of which will undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unfit for business or society, and a cure is guaranteed.

Females who may be laboring with any difficulty of the womb may rest assured immediate relief.
